DUBOIS KNOCKS CLEVELAND.

Idaho Senator Says One-Third of Convention Will Be Unalterably Opposed to Him.

TAMMANY FOR GROVER.

Fayette Delegation Says His Shadow Overcasts All Others.

St. Louis, July 1.—Some western delegates to the Democratic national convention have arrived. Senator Dubois of Idaho, when asked what he thought of the presidential outlook, said he saw nothing but Parker.

"Who will they nominate after they have beaten Parker?" he asked. "Would it be Cleveland? There is more than a third of the convention that will stay here until the election before allowing the nomination of Cleveland. An attempt to nominate Cleveland will throw the convention into the hands of Bryan. The convention will nominate Parker because they have no other man to nominate."

Senator Dubois declares that he will force an anti-polygamy plank into the national platform. That will be his principal work while in St. Louis. He says that the Republicans fear they would lose Utah, Idaho and Wyoming if they declared against polygamy, but he claims that a strong declaration of that kind in the Democratic platform will carry these states for the Democratic party.

Former Senator Cannon of Utah says that he will not bolt this convention.

"Eight years ago I bolted a convention in this very town, and I have grown gray since that time trying to find proper political terminal facilities. Let them put anything they please in the platform, and even nominate Grover Cleveland, and I'll watch the other fellows walk out if they want to, but none of it for me. I have had all of it I want."

Besides Cannon there will be Senator Teller of Colorado, Senator Dubois of Idaho, former Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota, Charles A. Towne of New York and Congressman John Lind of Minnesota, delegates in the coming Democratic convention, all of whom bolted the Republican national convention in St. Louis eight years ago.

Murphy for Cleveland.

New York, July 1.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, made a statement to his attitude with reference to the national Democratic convention. He said:

"I am booming no candidate. I am instructed for Parker but I still hold that Cleveland is the strongest man that can be nominated."

"Tammany delegates being instructed for Parker, how can they go to St. Louis and work for Cleveland?" Mr. Murphy was asked.

"I am instructed for Parker," was the reply. "That's all I have to say about that."

"Is there any possibility that the Tammany delegation may be instructed for Cleveland after the first ballot?"

"I can't say anything as to that."

Fayette for Cleveland.

The Connellsville delegation to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis will leave on Sunday morning. They will go direct to St. Louis, some of them with the Pennsylvania delegation on Colonel J. M. Guiley's chartered train and others over the Baltimore & Ohio. Among those who will go are Sheriff S. E. Frook of Uniontown, who is a delegate from this district; Editor W. D. McGinnis of the Daily News; H. M. McDonald and Mr. Leonard of Dawson, Bert L. Thomas, L. S. Howard of Connellsville and likely Charles B. Franks of Leisenring No. 1. The Uniontown Democrats are not so enthusiastic as they are in Connellsville over the convention. Except Sheriff S. E. Frook, the name of no one from there has been mentioned as likely to attend. However, all the Fayette county Democratic leaders say it begins to look like Grover Cleveland for a fourth nomination. They say he overshadows every other aspirant for the nomination at the present time.

SWALLOW IS CHOSEN.

Prohibitionists Nominate Pennsylvania As Candidate for President.

Indianapolis, July 1.—The Prohibition party in national convention nominated Silas C. Swallow of Pennsylvania for president and George W. Carroll of Texas for vice president. The platform was adopted without argument after a long deadlock in the resolutions committee. It was described by I. H. Ames of Oregon, secretary of the committee, as the broadest platform ever placed before the people by the party.

In addition to the planks on the prior question, it declares the party to be in favor of international arbitration, a suffrage law based on moral and moral qualifications, uniform laws for the country and dependent popular election of senators, judicial service extension and the initiative and referendum. The trust question was recognized by a demand for right application of the principle of justice to all organizations of capital and labor. A reform of divorce laws is demanded and polygamy is ounced. General Miles put an end to the movement to nominate him for president by sending to John C. Woolley a telegram from New York asking that his name be not presented. This was considered final, and the movement to Mr. Swallow was unanimous, no other name being considered. Over $16,000 was raised by subscription pledges from the floor of the convention, which, with $11,000 in the treasury, will be the nucleus of the campaign fund. National Chairman Stewart and National Secretary Tate were re-elected. The Prohibition editors organized for the campaign by electing Edward Clark of Indianapolis president.

The convention program closed with a mass meeting at which addresses were made by National Chairman Stewart, John G. Woolley and others. Several hundred of the delegates left for St. Louis to visit the exposition.

The total vote for vice president was: Carroll, 626; Ames, 132; Parker, 1. Mr. Carroll was declared the nominee. The national committee was authorized to fill vacancies on the ticket. The convention then adjourned sine die.

Harrisburg, July 1.—The Patriot this morning says: Dr. Silas C. Swallow may decline the nomination after all. In response to a congratulatory telegram, he sent the following to Chairman Stewart:

"If honor referred to in your dispatch implies duties requiring my absence from home, while I highly appreciate any honor or duty the greatest party of the age can give me, yet unless Mrs. Swallow's health greatly improves I would be compelled to decline."

COL. BUTLER ARRESTED.

Wealthy St. Louis Politician Is Charged With Bribery.

St. Louis, July 1.—Colonel Edward Butler, a prominent local politician, came into court in answer to a bench warrant charging him with bribing a witness. He was released on a bond of $10,000, with John J. O'Brien as surety.

The warrant was issued by Judge Taylor at the request of Circuit Attorney Folk, as the result, it is believed, of recent disclosures made to the grand jury by Charles F. Kelly and Charles Gutke, former members of the house of delegates, convicted of bribery.

The witness whom Butler is supposed to have bribed is Charles E. Kelly, former speaker of the house of delegates, whom Charles Gutke told Circuit Attorney Folk in his confession was paid $50,000 to go to Europe at a critical time in his development here when his testimony would have involved men "higher up."

CHARGES WITHDRAWN.

Miners' Officials Cannot Be Connected With Independence Explosion.

Cripple Creek, Colo., July 1.—Special Prosecutor Crump has withdrawn the charge of complicity in the Viaduct mine explosion of Nov. 26 last which had been made against Charles H. Meyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and will prepare to have indicted is Charles E. Meyer and Kennison, who are now under arrest here. Haywood is managing the business of the Federation at its headquarters in Denver. The whereabouts of Parker and Davis is not known.

RECALL IS EFFECTIVE.

French Premier Says Ambassador Will Not Return to Vatican.

Paris, July 1.—Premier Combes was consulted by the budget committee of the chamber of deputies on the subject of the appropriation for the French embassy at the Vatican. The premier said the government would reserve its opinion until the matter had been discussed in the chamber, the status quo meanwhile prevailing. Asked what was the meaning of the status quo in this connection, and whether the Vatican had been notified of the recall of Ambassador Nisard, the premier replied: "I do not know whether the Vatican has been notified, but I can say that the recall is effective. The ambassador will not return to Rome."

DOCTOR ASSASSINATED.

Called to Door and Shot to Death by Unknown Person.

Denver, July 1.—Dr. Seymour T. Jarrold, a young physician, was shot and killed at his home in this city. Two shots were fired, one bullet entering his body near the heart. Apparently he had been called to the door and assassinated. His wife was absent at the time. The murderer escaped.

On Dec. 28, 1903, Dr. Jarrold, then county physician, was beaten almost to death in his office by an unknown assailant.

NEW CARRIER RULES.

Postoffice Department More Strict With Rural Delivery Routes.

CAN'T CARRY NEWSPAPERS.

All County Papers Must Be Addressed and Sent Through the Postoffice. Where a Record Is Kept—No Liquors Allowed.

The new regulations governing rural free delivery mail carriers went into effect this morning. A number of restrictions are named in the circular issued by Postmaster General Payne and received several days ago by Postmaster Clark Collins. Principal among these is one forbidding the carrier acting as agent for newspapers. The only newspapers they can carry are those published in the county. These must be addressed in the newspaper offices and sent to the office, where they will be weighed and a record kept of the weight. The publishers, however, do not have to pay postage on papers thus carried, and the carriers receive no extra compensation for this work.

Carriers are forbidden to solicit business in the way of carrying parcels or merchandise from any firm or corporation. They are allowed to execute errands and commissions for the patrons of the routes, but must be paid by them only. They are not allowed to diverge from their routes to transact such business. All available parcels must be mailed by patrons of the routes. The carriers are not allowed to carry any passengers except post-office officials, who have the privilege of going over their routes with them at any time.

Carriers are not allowed to carry any spirituous liquors, either for themselves or for patrons. The receipts of the Connellsville postoffice for the quarter ending on Thursday, June 30, were $5,074.56. They were distributed as follows: Stamps and stamped envelopes, $1,813.50; newspaper postage, $85.55; box rents, $155.50. This is $272 less than the receipts of the corresponding quarter in 1903. The receipts for the month of June, 1904, were $1,442.06.

Carrier Miller left today on his annual vacation. Each carrier and clerk in the civil service list of the postoffice department is allowed 15 days vacation each year with pay. Sub-Carrier John Collins is on Miller's route.

J. P. C. Club Entertained.

The J. P. C. Club was very pleasantly entertained Thursday evening by Miss Naama Rosenblum at her home on Snyder street. Music and games were the amusements. A very enjoyable evening was spent by those present. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. There were 20 guests present.

King's Daughters to Entertain.

The King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian Church will entertain the King's Daughters of the Trinity Lutheran Church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the chapel of the Presbyterian Church.

LOCOMOTIVE BLOWS UP.

Three Trainmen Killed on Pennsylvania Railroad Near Johnstown.

Johnstown, July 1.—Locomotive No. 117 exploded on the Pennsylvania railroad while going up the noon train, 50 yards from Ehrenfeld station, killing three men and injuring two others, one of them fatally.

The Dead.

John Wissinger, engineer, Connellsville, age 45.

D. C. Crouch, fireman, Connellsville, age 25.

Walter Ross, fireman, East Taylor township, age 21.

The Injured.

Conductor Archibald Boyle, Connellsville, cannot recover.

Brakeman J. D. Smith, seriously hurt.

The explosion lifted the boiler clear off the trucks and hurled it into the woods by the side of the track. The three men killed were in the cab of the locomotive, while the injured were in the caboose of the freight train just ahead.

A similar accident, causing the death of two men, occurred within 100 yards of the same spot several months ago.

Parts of the engine were blown fully 300 feet from where the explosion occurred. Four cars were totally destroyed and main tracks No. 1 and 2 were torn up and blocked to quite a distance.

Surgeons were sent to the scene of the disaster to look after the injured. It is said that none of them will recover, as all are badly scalded. The cause of the explosion is given as an insufficient amount of water in the boiler.

MURDERED BY A TRAMP.

Hobo Demands Hot Breakfast and Resents Woman's Refusal.

New Martinsville, W. Va., July 1.—Because Mrs. J. W. Fix, wife of a farmer at Wileyville, refused to cook him a breakfast an unknown tramp blew off the top of her head with a shotgun.

The man appeared at the Fix home, stood just after the farm lands had finished breakfast and asked for something to eat. He was offered cold meat, bread and butter, but refused that and in threatening tones insisted that she prepare a hot meal. He became impatient and she ordered him from the premises. Knowing that she was at his mercy, he pushed her, seized a shotgun and shot her head almost from her shoulders.

News of the murder spread rapidly and men are scouring the country in search of the murderer. So intense is the feeling against him that lynching may follow his capture.

TWO MINERS KILLED.

Fall of Rock in Johnstown Mine Crushes Three Lives Out.

Johnstown, July 1.—Andrew Semko, age 22, and Ivan Makar, age 30, were killed by a fall of rock in No. 11 heading of the Cambria mill mine.

Makar was running a machine and Semko was loading after him. A mass of rock in the roof, which had appeared perfectly safe, came down upon the two men, crushing out their lives in an instant.

Makar leaves a wife and three children. Semko was unmarried.

Chauntious Assembly Opens.

Connellsville, N. Y., July 1.—The thirty-first Chauntious opened under favorable circumstances.

THE SCALE IS SIGNED.

Between American Tinplate Co. and Amalgamated Association.

REPORTED SO AT PITTSBURG.

Old Scale Expired Last Night, but an Agreement Was Made to Work at Present 18 Per Cent. Reduction for Present.

The Courier is reliably informed this afternoon that the wage scale between the American Sheet & Tinplate Company and the Amalgamated Association was signed last night at midnight. A rumor to that effect was current among the workmen at the South Connellsville tin mills this morning. Superintendent Lloyd stated to a reporter for The Courier that he had heard the report this morning, but he could not confirm it.

A telephone message from the Chronicle Telegraph states that the scale was signed late last night, but that no definite information as to its contents had been given out by either side.

At the adjournment of the conference yesterday in Pittsburg it was agreed between the tin plate workmen and the company to continue working at the present 18 per cent. wage reduction for the present. Another meeting is to be held on July 22.

JUMPED INTO RIVER.

Two New Haven Men Injured As a Result of a Wager.

On a wager for a quart of whiskey and one dollar, Lawrence Munsey, colored, and George Cadwallader, white, both of New Haven, jumped from the Main street bridge into the Youngsloveny river this morning at ten o'clock. Both landed in shallow water. Munsey got a bad cut on the knee and Cadwallader was badly bruised up. The two injured were attended by Dr. R. S. McKee, who says neither of them are very serious.

The jumping was witnessed by a number of people, who heard the argument, but didn't suppose that either young man had the nerve to jump. There was considerable excitement when it was found that the men were injured and a crowd rushed down to the water's edge to their rescue.

TWO FINE NEW STATIONS.

They Will Be Built by B. & O. at Uniontown and Morgantown.

AN AGE OF GRAFT.

So Says Judge Nathaniel Ewing in Bar Association Speech.

Characterizing the present as "an age of graft," Judge Nathaniel Ewing of Uniontown, president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, in an address at the opening of that organization's tenth annual convention Wednesday afternoon at Cape May, declared that the solution of the problems of the day was to be found by setting higher standards, not only for those who sought admission to the bar, but for the lawyer and the Judge quite as well.

"Great questions confront us," said Judge Ewing. "Corporations and trusts are to be regulated and controlled. Polygamy and easy divorce are undermining the homes, capital and labor are antagonistic. The masses are unquiet. Socialism is spreading. Anarchists are threatening. Judge Lynch would usurp the courts' functions. Corporate wealth and great private fortunes are corrupting the body politic. Municipal government is tainted. Elections are by dollars not by ballots. It is an age of 'graft.'"

"The ethics of the Legal Profession" was the topic upon which Judge Ewing spoke. He commented upon the important part played by lawyers in American government and said that more than half of the members of Congress, four-fifths of the Cabinet officers, the majority of governors and two-thirds of our Presidents have been lawyers.

"That the lawyer has been traduced and maligned by the public, execrated and slaughtered by mobs and condemned and executed by monarchs only proves his prominence and power," said Judge Ewing.

"Without sound learning and good character the lawyer should not enter the lists. Without them opportunities for good become occasions for injustice and oppression. Justice is outraged in her own temple and the administration of the law is made a mockery and a derision."

"It is, therefore, our imperative duty to insist that no one shall be admitted to the bar who does not furnish satisfactory proof that he really possesses the requisite knowledge, character and ability. We should not abate our efforts until every district court of the State has adopted rules requiring the certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners in both preliminary and final examinations, with the reservations to those courts as seems right and proper of all questions other than the educational qualification of the applicant. Lawyers are not only men and are not exempt from the frailties of mankind. Their opportunities to transgress are numerous and their temptations great. Today it is very properly held that the delinquencies are greater and the delinquents more numerous than heretofore."

"So far as concerns personal conduct and action in the actual administration of the law, I can discern but little difference between the duty of bench and bar."

"The Judge should never be voluntarily interested in either political or prominent business matters. And yet we hear of judges being active in partisan politics, legislative lobbying and the promotion and direction of great business enterprises. This is not the time for neglect of right conduct and decline from proper standards by the lawyers."

PAY FOR SERVICES.

Carry McGroery Sues for Her Services As Housekeeper.

Carrie McGroery, through her attorney, T. S. Lacker, has entered suit against Lewis McGinnis of Franklin township to recover $14,000 with interest from October 27, 1903. This is for services which she claims to have rendered as housekeeper. According to the statement of the plaintiff, she lived with the defendant on or about October 25, 1903. She took full charge of the family of Gilleland, which consisted of five small children. She exercised every function of a mother and continued with them until October 2, 1903, when she was discharged. Her term of service covered 10 years and 23 days or about 523 weeks. After being discharged she was directed to leave the Gilleland home at once.

The plaintiff says there was no agreement as to what she was to receive for her services, but she thinks that $400 a week would be about the right figure. The children were not only small, but they were sick a great deal of the time and required almost constant attention. Moreover, Mr. Gilleland was also sick for quite a while, during which time she nursed and cared for him. At no time was there anyone employed to help her with the household duties. All the money given her by Gilleland was used to buy clothing and provisions for the children and family, with the exception of $100, which she appropriated to her own use. She says that nearly all her own clothing was bought by money obtained by sewing for other parties during her spare moments. The full amount of her bill was $2,092 and deducting the $100, credit allowed, leaves $1,992, which she will now sue for.

GRINDLE TAKEN BACK.

To Serve Out His Furlishment in U. S. Navy.

Sheriff S. E. Frook left for Philadelphia on the 4:40 P. M. train, Tuesday evening, taking with him Levi Grindle, the deserter from the United States gunboat Lancaster, who was captured at the Fort Hill mine near Vanderbilt. Grindle is about 21 years of age and acknowledged that he had deserted from the service, but gave no reason for his action. He deserted while he was in San Francisco, March 11, 1904. Shortly afterwards officers received his description and had since been on the lookout for him.

As soon as captured, Sheriff Frook notified the naval authorities at Philadelphia and Tuesday afternoon received a telegram to bring the prisoner to Philadelphia at once.

SHIPPING TO CANADA.

W. R. Harris & Co. Sent Coal and Coke to Manitoba and Quebec.

PLANS DECIDED UPON.

And They Are Now In the Hands of Local Contractors.

"I believe work on a new depot at Uniontown will be started within the next 30 days," said Superintendent J. F. Irwin of the Connellsville and Fairmont divisions of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to a Daily Courier reporter today. "The plans for the improvement are in the hands of the contractors now, and bids are expected any day. It is the purpose of the company to let the contract as quickly as possible and to get the work hurried to completion. The improvement will include, besides a handsome new depot, an improved freight house and a rearrangement of the yard tracks for a team and freight track."

The plans for the new depot were shown to a Courier man. The depot will be somewhat similar in style to the Connellsville depot, and will be 82x26 feet. It will be built of red or buff brick. The men's and women's waiting rooms will each be 24x24, fitted with modern toilets. The ticket and telegraph office will be 14x17 1/2 feet, while the baggage room, located at the west end of the building, will be 16x24 feet. The building will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000. In case satisfactory bids cannot be secured from contractors, the company will do the construction work.

This is the first new depot to be built on the local divisions within four years except the depot at Confluence, which was necessary on account of extensive yard improvements there.

The old Uniontown depot will be remodeled for more freight office room. The yard tracks will be changed and a freight and team track arranged with an entrance from Penn street. It will have a capacity of 30 cars, and will be partly protected by sheds. It is thought possible to have the improvements completed by early fall.

A new station similar to the one at Uniontown will be built this summer at Morgantown. The plans are practically a duplicate of those at Uniontown.

TWO NEW SERGEANTS.

Successful Candidates in Competitive Examination Are Announced.

At the regular drill of Company D, Tenth Infantry, held in the armory Thursday evening, the successful candidates for non-commissioned officers were announced. Corporals Creso Horner and John H. Gordon were promoted to be Sergeants. Roy Butt and A. Milton Krepps were made Corporals. The new non-coms will assume their respective duties at once.

The ration allowance of 500 per man, allowed for the recent movement of the Company to the unveiling of the Hawkins memorial monument in Pittsburg, was paid. It was decided to accept the invitation of the Uniontown committee and to attend the Fort Necessity celebration on July 4. The Company will assemble at the armory at 12:30 o'clock on Sunday. They will be carried in a special car of the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Connelville system to Morgantown, south of Uniontown. From there they will march eight miles up the mountain to the scene of the celebration. One day's cooked rations will be taken along.

As soon as captured, Sheriff Frook notified the naval authorities at Philadelphia and Tuesday afternoon received a telegram to bring the prisoner to Philadelphia at once.

Cures Dyspepsia Even More Quickly Now Than at Other Seasons.

The point of least resistance is the proper place of attack. This holds good either in West Point tactics, or in the treatment of disease.

The summer is the best season in the whole year for the treatment and cure of stomach trouble. The outdoor life, the common use of fruits and vegetables, and the lessened strain upon the digestive organs all help the cure.

Just take a Mi-ona tablet after each meal and complete the cure. This remedy mingles with the food you eat and aids digestion. It soothes and heals any inflammation that may be present in the lining of the stomach, gives tone and strength to the digestive organs, builds up the nervous system, and soon restores complete health.

A. A. Clarke has so much confidence that he guarantees to refund his cost in case it does not effect a cure. Two weeks' treatment costs but 50c. Use it regularly for a month and if you are not more than satisfied with the results, take back the two empty boxes to Mr. Clarke and he will refund your money without question. A guarantee like this shows the confidence he has in the remedy.

Now is the time to get well by using Mi-ona.

WE ARE GOING TO MAKE SOME NOISE

CLEARANCE SALE

We are preparing to inaugurate important changes in our business which will make this store one of the most complete and best appointed Men's Outfitting establishments in Fayette county. Our plans include the addition of a Merchant Tailoring, Men's Furnishing and Hat Department. Full announcement concerning these will be made later.

The important fact to which we wish to call your attention at this time is the rare opportunity which is yours for the next fifteen days to secure High Grade Men's and Youth's Clothing at extremely low prices.

At the close of each season there are always "lonesomes," last of lots, singles, stay-behinds, suits which were bashful about putting themselves forward. Odds and ends which are as good in all respects as those which have been sold. We want to clean up our stock. You May Have All the Profit and Part of the cost. We have selected out a large number of suits which we have reduced one-fourth, one-third, and in many cases one-half their value. All sizes from 16 Youth's to 42 Men's are included. We have divided them into four lots and have priced them at $5.00, $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50.

$5.00
 The Five Dollar lot consists of Men's and Youth's Neck Suits of Cheviot, Cashmeres, Serges and Worsteals in black, blue and fancy mixtures which formerly sold at $6.50, $7.50, $8 and $10.

$7.50
 This lot includes the full range of sizes in well-tailored, serviceable, handsome Suits of fashionable fabrics and remarkable money saving values. They formerly sold at $8.50, $9, $10, $11 and $12.

$10
 These are high grade Suits in single and double breasted styles. Tailoring is first-class, many being the product of the Roberts-Wicks Company, than which no better ready-to-wear clothing is made. Suits in this lot sold at $12, $13, $14, $15, $16.50 and $18.

$12.50
 The best high grade, hand-tailored Suits in a variety of styles. No better made or better fitting suits are to be found anywhere. They formerly sold for $15, $16.50, $18, $20 and $22. All during this sale $12.50.

Similar treatment has been accorded the trousers stock, resulting in three lots at $1.00, $2.00 and $3.00. Extraordinary values which have been selling as high as $6.00.

Sale Will Commence Friday, July 1st, and Continue Until Saturday, July 15th.

SCOTSDALE.

Breezy Paragraphs Picked Up in the Mill Town.

Scottdale, July 1.—This evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dick the W. C. T. U. of town will hold a porch party and a program of music and recitations will be carried out and at the close of the program refreshments will be served. Following is the program: Piano solo, Miss Jean Caldwell, recitation, Roy Elcher; piano duet, Misses Ethel Dick and Anna Lyle, recitation, Miss Isabel Lawrence; vocal solo, Miss Emily Cartwright, duet, Miss Roberts and Edward Stauffer; recitation, Miss Marie Kerr, vocal solo, J. R. Schwartz; piano solo, Miss Edith McCall; vocal solo, Warren Murrie; recitation, Mrs. W. W. Elcher, vocal duet, Miss Lydia Barkell and Elmer Morrow. Those who appear on the program are all well known to Scottdale people and a pleasant evening is anticipated by those who shall be in attendance.

Robert Kruller left yesterday afternoon for his home in Forest county to spend a couple of weeks visiting his parents and old home friends.

Miss Nellie Tannehill, Wilmerding, spent several days here this week visiting her mother, Mrs. Judson Tannehill.

The congregation of the Baptist Church gave their retiring pastor, Rev. J. M. Moody, and wife a farewell reception in the church Tuesday evening. A large number of members of the congregation and several pastors of other churches were present and an enjoyable evening was spent by those present. Rev. Moody was presented with a purse and Mrs. Moody with a fine lounge which was a fitting way of showing their appreciation.

Preparatory services will be held in the Trinity Reformed Church this evening and the mid-summer communion will be administered on Sunday, July 2.

To-morrow, Scottdale people will again have the privilege of listening to and seeing the old but ever new play, Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin, under canvas.

The cement retaining wall around the Kinkead property at the corner of Broadway and Louck's avenue, which is being built by the Scottdale council is nearly finished and the flagstone are ready to place.

Two large red automobiles were in town last night taking advantage of our beautiful paved streets.

Miss Alice Brownfield returned Thursday morning from Piquette, where she had been visiting the family of her sister, Mrs. Jos. Pasley, the past three weeks.

The clerks of Scottdale went up against the Frick pen pushers in Louck's park on Wednesday evening and found that it was easier to sell line and take in the cash than to bring their men over the home plate. The clerks managed to save themselves from a whitewash by bringing in one score which in the meantime the Frick team had piled up seven scores. The game was for practice and some exercise for the clerks.

M. Miller & Bros., have a very pretty decorated window for the fourth of July. Several large American flags adorn the window and Miss Columbia is standing in front of a stand holding a candle with a soldier in full uniform on the opposite side. A flag is wrapped around the stand and on it is an inkstand with a large paper representing the "Declaration of Independence." The window is very appropriate for the occasion.

A cartoon is being shown this week in the window of Reberford's new-depot, drawn by John Templeton, showing the game of ball which will be played in Louck's park this afternoon, between the gas men and the hardeners. The cartoon is attracting lots of attention.

The Eastern Star Lodge, No. 3913, Coming Men of America have a beautiful cushion on exhibition in Murphy & Co's window which they are going to chance off. The cushion was made by Miss Gleason.

Watch The Courier for date when the Johnstown team, managed by Jack Menefee, whose home is here, and the famous pitcher that used to twirl the ball in the National League will play ball in the Dawson Driving park. It is not known just what team they will play, but watch The Courier for it.

SUMMIT MINES.

Personals Gathered From Along the Morgan Valley.

Summit Mines, June 30.—One of the most interesting ball games of the season was played on the Summit grounds last evening, when the Broad Ford and Summit teams lined up. Up to the eighth inning the score which was 4 to 5, looked as though it would be a tie, but in the ninth inning Broad Ford ran in three scores. Then came the Summit boys to the bat and after they had run in two more scores and had a man on third one of the coaches stepped inside of the line. The umpire, who was watching the ball, did not see him but Tony Haley, who has a good eye and of course wanted to call the runner out which would have been right had the umpire seen it. The Broad Ford boys would not give the Summit team their bats and the umpire called the game in favor of Summit, score 9 to 0.

W. E. Snodden of New Haven was a Morgan caller yesterday.

NO THIRD TERM.

The whirligig of time plays, some queer tricks, especially in politics.
Grover Cleveland, eight years ago and most of the time since the despised and rejected and cursed and condemned, overshadows the coming Democratic National Convention, and predictions are numerous and positive that he will be nominated.

Even Tammany, his most ancient enemy, has declared for him. The greater part of the Free Silver element, in fact all save the personal following of Colonel Bryan, seem to see the folly of their course and desire to "return to sanity" and to Grover.

Grover Cleveland is a statesman of high order and a man of great strength of character. His record as President compares favorably with that of any of our Chief Magistrates. Both the business interests and Colonel Bryan's
"common people" know that the country would be safe in his hands.

But we will be very much surprised to see Grover Cleveland nominated, and we will be more surprised if he should accept a nomination for a third term. He knows well the unwritten law that forbids any man to aspire a third time to the Presidency. Washington, the Father of His Country and undeniably an aristocrat, set the example of retiring to private life after having twice served the people as Chief Magistrate.

The American people are jealous of of their rights as rulers. They have a keen scent for anything that threatens those rights. They reason logically that if a man may be elected for a third term, he may have a fourth and a fifth, and become so entrenched in power as to successfully set himself up as a dictator. Cleveland knows the temper of the people; therefore, we say we will be surprised if he should accept a nomination.

But we do not think he will have an opportunity. The delegates to the Democratic National Convention, we must assume, are for the most part intelligent men, with a fair knowledge of national politics. They must know, therefore, that the nomination of Cleveland will mean the absolute defection of Bryan and all his following, a splitting in twain of the Democratic party. They must further know that they have but faint hopes of winning with a united party, and none whatever if the party is divided against itself.

If the St. Louis Convention is dominated by men who have "returned to sanity," it will not nominate Grover Cleveland, nor William J. Bryan, nor Willie Hearst, but some strong man to unite the party and attract some Republican votes.

Colonel Cuffey is reported to have such an article in his vest pocket which he intends to spring upon the convention. It is labeled Robert B.
Pattison, but a man who turns his coat so feadily and gulps down his principles so easily as Pattison did in 1896 is too much of a weather cock to suit "the plain people."

Tammany, for Grover! Truly, the lion and the lamb have lain down together.

Uniontown and Morgantown are to have new B. & O. stations. The company is extending its improvements to the smaller branch lines.

The Prohibition party had a terrible time finding somebody to run for President. General Miles, after dallying with the proposition, finally declined it, and the convention nominated Pennsylvania's standing candidate for everything, Dr. Swallow, who doubts very much whether he can accept on account of the precarious condition of his good wife's health. Where, O where was Colonel Likins, late of Kentucky!

New Haven is to hold high carnival next week.

Colonel Bryan doesn't want any of the Democratic boaters to come back.
He prefers to be king of the minority rather than to be one of "the common people" in a majority party.

NEGRO SHOTS MERCHANT.

Is Pursued by Citizens and Seriously Wounded One of Them.

Patterson, N. J., July 1.—Max Wollenberg, a merchant, was shot by a negro and fatally wounded. The negro entered the store and grabbed some small articles from a counter, and ran out. Wollenberg gave chase, and when he shouted "stop this!" the fleeing negro shot him and ran on.
A patrolman tried to intercept the fugitive, who fired three times at him. Then William Kessel, a citizen made an attempt to head off the negro, who shot Kessel through the jaw.

The negro was captured in the woods and brought to the city. He

DUNBAR.

Events of the Day in the Busy Furrowed Town.

Dunbar, July 1.—Tony Jasper, who operates an Arabian store on Railroad street, took suddenly ill on Monday evening after eating some watermelon.
A doctor was called and attended his case. He decided that it was of such a nature that he should be taken to the hospital, and on Wednesday he was taken to the Cottage State Hospital at Connellville for treatment.
His condition is very serious and there is some doubt of his recovery. Tony, although an Arablan, has been in this country for a number of years and he has been engaged in business here for over two years. He is very intelligent and is well acquainted with nearly all of the business methods.

D. C. Polk has had a force of men at work for some time making some extensive improvements to the interior of his Central Hotel building. When the improvements are complete it will add greatly to the convenience of the traveling public and to those who are employed at the hotel as well. The improvements being made in the toilet rooms are of the most modern invention. All those who may stop at the Central Hotel will find everything first class and the proprietors, Edman & Abraham, will always be found ready and anxious to please and accommodate their patrons.

The first nine went to Lement Wednesday evening and were defeated by a score of 12 to 5. The batteries were as follows: Lement, Patterson and McMasters, Dunbar, Richey and Miles.
The local team will play two games here on the Fourth. The morning game will be with the B. A.'s and in the afternoon they will play the Smithfield boys.

Charles Marietta, who has been conducting the news depot in the Swearingen building near the B. & O. depot has moved into the room formerly occupied by Dr. W. W. Warner as an office.

Mrs. Charles Lincoln was reported as being seriously ill yesterday. Her friends and family are very much concerned about her welfare. Her husband, who is working at the stone mason trade at California, Pa., was wired to return home immediately.
The township School Board will meet in New Haven on July 9 and elect teachers for the coming term.

S. J. McCandless is having an addition made to his house on Church street. Mr. McCandless has done a wonderful amount of improving to the property, since moving into it last spring.

The Jon & Model Photo Show has posted bills on the various bill boards about town announcing that they will exhibit in Dunbar on July 1.

Mrs. Frank Miller who has been in the search for some time has found her laborer a connection with the operating of a restaurant and gave her home a the meal for a few hours of much-needed rest. She hopes that the change may benefit her health.

Miss Lora O'Daniel gave an interesting lecture on the subject of "The Mystic of the East" at the Central Hotel, Tuesday night.

night to a fair-sized audience. Miss O'Daniel has been giving her lecture at various surrounding towns during the past few weeks and all seem well pleased with her manner of presenting the temperance question.

Miss Iola Smith, one of Dunbar's prominent teachers, was calling in Connellville yesterday.
Rev. W. A. Edle of Connellville ville yesterday afternoon calling on friends and shopping.

Miss Mattie Williams is very poorly.
She has been suffering with the neuralgia for some time.
There went into effect today on the Pennsylvania railroad a new passenger rate. One would naturally have supposed to changing the rates that they would have reduced the fares in order to compete with the street railway. But such is not the case, as the new rate sheet shows an advance on all short hauls. Uniontown, Greensburg and Pittsburg are the same, but where the fare was five cents it has been raised to seven cents.

J. L. Schick who has been engaged in the shoe business here for several years, has sold out to H. S. Loh-
r. Mr. Schick is interested in a place coming in Connellville and he will devote his attention to that busi-

SMITHTON WAS EASY

For Columbus at New Haven
Park on Thursday Afternoon.

QUINN IS A FINE TWIRLER.

Dunbar Led Pitched a Pretty Game and the Team Behind Him Hit Ball Hard and Often, Except in First Inning.

The Smithton base ball team, the crack nine from down the Yough, were defeated by the Columbus at Columbia park in New Haven, Thursday afternoon, by a score of 14 to 5. After the first inning the game was a one-sided one. Quinn after that time had the Smithton boys on queer street when his recent runs. In the first inning he was touched up pretty lively, four runs coming over the plate. The crowd, which was a large one, got the impression that the Columbus were doomed to go down to their first defeat. In their half of the first they scored two runs and in the third they scored to the front by two runs and never lost the lead. Smithton went up in the air in several innings.

There was much heavy hitting by the Columbus and the Smithton boys picked out a few clean singles, but their hits came usually with no one on bases, and counted for nothing. Quinn, the Dunbar boy, is a coming pitcher. He has everything that goes to make a successful professional. He is a big fellow, weighing 180 pounds, and has an arm of iron. While Robinson supports the Dunbar lad in the style, he is too light for his speed. Quinn has great curves and good control of the ball. He is also something of a twicker.

M. Gomas in left field for the Columbus is playing a better game this season than he ever did. He fielded in faultless style yesterday afternoon and had two hits to his credit. Carl Bishop had little to do in the field, but chalked up a couple of hits. His base running was one of the features of the game. Bishop had his noddle about him at all stages and his clever running of the third base line once ultimately resulted in four scores. Ted Francis, at short, played his usual brilliant game and hit the ball hard. John Dugan in the middle was to the front with a three-bagger. Mason holds first down well. He kept up his record of this season, failing but once to hit the ball in the ten games he has played.

Buttermore, who pitched for Smithton, has a very deceptive slow ball and a rise that is a fooler. He pitched good ball, much better than the score indicates.

Tony Bufano and George Marietta umpired the game. Bufano was off only in one decision, a hit by Smithton along the third base line which should have been called fair. It was close, however.

Elke Game at Greensburg.

The Connellville Elks team is playing at Greensburg this afternoon. This is the first game at home for Greensburg. Tomorrow the local Elks go to Apollo. On Monday two games are scheduled at Marietta & Stillwagon park with the Elks nine of Bradock.

Swamp Tigers Won.

The Connellville Swamp Tigers defeated the North End Athletic Club Thursday by a score of 8 to 3. The Swamp boys have a crack team and say they can beat anything from 11 to 14 years. Batteries for the Swamp Tigers, Hardy and Bradigan; N. E. A. C. Jones and Getchell.

GOT THEIR DIPLOMAS.

Douglas Commencement Exercises of the Class of 1904.

The commencement exercises of the class of 1904 of the Douglas Business College were held in the Carnegie Hall on Thursday evening. The class numbered 20 and the hall was well filled with an appreciative audience. The opening address was made by Rev. James A. Maxwell of McKeesport, formerly of Connellville.

The diplomas were presented by Warren Douglas, president of the college. In addition to the diplomas medals were awarded to four of the class. The winners of the medals were Miss Anna Friel for spelling; Charles E. Buttermore, letter writing; Elmer T. Hess, penmanship; and Jerry Lowrey, rapid calculation.

The college has had an exceedingly successful term and the people of Connellville and vicinity appreciate the work being done by the institution. The following musical program was rendered:

Millard; "Waiting," Mrs. Sinclair Rogers; introductory address, Prof. W. Douglas; address by speaker, Rev. J. A. Maxwell; solo, "Ho Was a Prince," J. S. McKee; awarding medals and diplomas, Prof. Douglas; benediction; selection, orchestra.

THE SCHOOL BLOTTER

For Districts Throughout the County Are Now Nearly Completed

AT COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE.

Fire Works Dealers at Uniontown Have Been Notified Not to Sell Their Goods on the Fourth—Salvation Army's New $20,000 Hall.

Uniontown, June 30.—O. G. Chick and A. P. Williams, clerks in the office of the County Commissioners at Uniontown, are now hard at work on the blotters for the school districts. Nearly all the larger districts have already been prepared and sent to the secretary of the School Board who will then make out the road and school tax or see that someone else does it. The commissioners are also helping with the work in order that it may be completed as soon as possible. The names of all taxables must be copied from the original returns as made by the assessors to a set of entirely new books for the benefit of the directors. The amount of taxable property must also be noted. This is a big job as well as a very tiresome one and follows closely on the making out of the State and county tax duplicates which took several weeks to complete.

Fire Works Barred.
The authorities of town have notified all the dealers that they must not sell any firecrackers or other fireworks of that nature on the Fourth of July. The discharge of any pistol, gun or cannon in or upon any of the public streets or alleys will be strictly prohibited and an extra force of officers will be put on duty with instructions to arrest any offenders. The officers are anticipating no little trouble in enforcing the ordinance. A year ago it was almost impossible to drive through the streets of town with any degree of safety and several accidents were narrowly averted. The most trouble arose over the cases, which were freely used by both men and boys. Some of the dealers had such a large sale that they sent in an extra large order for this season. Since being notified that their sale would not be allowed a few of the orders were at once cancelled, while several consignments were shipped back on arrival.

New School Rooms.
Several new school rooms will be erected in the vicinity this summer to accommodate the children of school age. Some of the districts put up graded school buildings within the past few years and thought they would have plenty of room for years to come. Since the compulsory law has been enforced, however, they find out that they had missed their calculations and that they must figure on some unexpected expense. A large percentage of the children come from foreign parents. The North Union township Board will add two additional rooms to the Lemont building and finish up an additional room at the Park school building. They will also build a new one-story brick, four-room building in the Wynd addition to Uniontown, near Oliver. The Franklin township Board will add two rooms to their new two-story building at Saco. The Georges, South Union, German, Menallen and other Boards in the southern part of the county will also be obliged to go to considerable expense along this line.

Family Quarrel Victims.
George Schloer, who was stabbed at Continental No. 1 Saturday night, is still in the hospital, but it is expected that he will be able to leave before a great while, as his injuries are not as serious as it was thought at first. Mrs. Schloer, who is also in the hospital, as a result of the drubbing which her husband was giving her at the time that he received the stabbing at the hands of the boarders, is also getting along nicely and will be able to leave the hospital in a few days. She was unconscious for a time at first and it was feared that she was injured inwardly. Schloer, as well as his assailants, is charged with felonious assault and battery, which it was thought for a time would have to be a capital murder.

A Sheriff's Sale.
Sheriff Froek has posted notices for the sale of the personal property of George Darrell at Point Marion. The sale is to take place at 10 o'clock July 2.

Letters Testamentary Granted.
George Smith of Smithton and J. S. Zundie of West Newton have been granted letters testamentary on the estate of Mary Hough, late of Brownsville.

Corner Stone Laying.
The members of the Salvation Army are making great preparations for the laying of the corner stone of their new hall on East Church street next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. An elaborate program has been prepared for the occasion. Judge Reppert, D. M. Herzig and other well known local speakers of ability are expected to take part in the exercises. In the absence of Adjutant Trevitt, Rev. Geo. H. Sisson of the M. P. Church is arranging for the event. The lot for the building was donated, but it is expected that the superstructure will cost at least $20,000, most of which has already been pledged.

A Suspicious Foreigner.
While traveling in the mountains, about three miles back from Chalk Hill, a few days ago, a couple of citizens of town came suddenly upon a very suspicious looking foreigner concealed in a clump of bushes. As the men approached, the fellow cautiously thrust a revolver into his inside pocket. They assured him that they were only looking for some cattle which had strayed and when their mission was understood the man apparently breathed a sigh of relief. He talked broken English. The only thing that he could say in the way of giving an account of himself was that he had been in the mountains for over two days; with nothing to eat. It is thought that he is a fugitive from justice and was keeping in hiding. At any rate his actions were very suspicious. The movements of the two men were watched very closely. The affair was reported to the local officers.

William H. Browneller, the justice of the peace of Perry township was transacting business at the court house Wednesday afternoon. Prof. Solomon F. Hogue, cashier of the Masonic bank, was a business caller in town Tuesday afternoon in the capital of the Klondike.

MRS. HAWKINS REMEMBERED
Miniature of Schenley Park Monument to Be Presented to Her.

Pittsburg, June 28.—Mrs. Agatha G. Hawkins of Washington, Pa., widow of Colonel Alexander Hawkins, is to be remembered by the Hawkins Memorial Association of the Tenth Regiment, N. G. P. Plans are under way to present to her a miniature statue of the handsome memorial to the late commander, which was dedicated at Schenley park on June 11. It was learned today that the sculptor is at work on the statue, and it is expected to be completed within the next six weeks.

The intention to honor Mrs. Hawkins, as well as the memory of her husband, was first suggested by the memorial committee nearly eight months ago, when William Couper of New York, who was making the monument for the park, was also instructed to make a miniature statue of the figure of Colonel Hawkins. By some misunderstanding, the desire of the committee was overlooked by the sculptor, and it was not made at the time. It had been the intention of the committee to have the statue ready at the time of the dedication in Schenley park and present it to Mrs. Hawkins. Arrangements for the presentation had been partially completed, and Judge J. A. McIlwaine of Washington, Pa., had been chosen to make the presentation address.

That the statue was not ready at the time caused considerable disappointment on the part of the members of the committee. At a meeting following the dedication it was decided, however, to have the statue made, and present it at some later time. Accordingly, the sculptor has been instructed to go ahead with the work. It had been the intention of the committee to keep the matter a secret in order to surprise Mrs. Hawkins, but since the statue could not be presented at the dedication, the fact that plans were under way for securing it later, has leaked out in Pittsburg.

The statue is to be an exact likeness of the figure of Colonel Hawkins on the monument in Schenley park. It will be about two feet in height, and will be cast in bronze. It will cost $300.

The memorial committee, of which Former Mayor William J. Diehl is chairman, has not closed up its accounts yet for the expense of the dedication. There are still several towns to be heard from, each having promised sums towards the fund that was raised. When these are heard from the committee feels assured that there will be sufficient money to pay all the bills and defray the expense of securing the statue of Mrs. Hawkins.

CHAPTER VIII.

THE GOVERNOR'S BALL.

THE ball of the governor of this was the success he wished it to be. The new prince was ablaze with light. Carriages dashed to the entrance, deposited their occupants and dashed away again. Officers on foot, with their cloaks covering their uniforms, walked in the obscurity of the streets to mingle on equal terms in the brilliant ballroom with princes and princesses. The gay world of the Caucasus was made gayer by the addition of the swarms from the orient. Bands blared their military music. Gowns that came from Paris swept the ballroom floor as the stately dances who were wont to walk with Persians and Turks of high degree. Laughter, conversation, introductions and presentations made a perfectly harmonious bedlam.

But there was one at the ball who listened to the words of welcome he received, while his eyes noted the appearance of one he sought.

"Will she never come?" he asked himself. "Or does she hate me that she will leave her uncle's wrath rather than meet me?"

"Colonel Delnikoff and Miss Alma," he heard some one say. He turned to look. He stood spellbound. He had not imagined, although he knew her well, that such a being could exist as entered the door at that moment. By the side of the grim-faced colonel walked a vision from some other land. It seemed never had anything like it been seen at a governor's ball in this. Alma's costume was a combination of Paris and the Caucasus—the daintiest lace and the costliest silk. Pearls adorned her snowy neck. Her little feet were clad in dainty shoes of white dooskin. Her white arms were round and full, her shoulders perfect. The white fan she carried seemed to waft a mystic thrill upon all she passed. Her voice was silvery in its music. She was the gayest of them all.

"Can it be that that lovely creature has at last consented to be my wife?" said the prince to himself.

"Prince Delnikoff, you know my niece, Alma Turneff?"

The prince bowed low. Alma extended her hand graciously.

"I know the prince very well," she said. "But since I have been enjoying my visit at this he has been quite a stranger."

"I did not—I did not know"—

"I congratulate you, prince, upon your appointment. My father wrote about it."

"What woman is this?" asked the colonel as he moved away, leaving her with Delnikoff. "She is a noble. I cannot solve her. But she loves him. I can see love in her very eyes."

She placed her hand on the prince's arm, and they joined the throng. Turkish pashas saw her and blushed their eyes as they thought of their own faded beauties in their harems; Persian princes sought presentation; Chinese mandarins almost forgot their names when she spoke to them. She had come to conquer, and she conquered. She was the queen of the ball, and Delnikoff was the envied of princes.

"Miss Alma will lead the grand march with the guest of honor," said the governor.

The band struck up "The Star" and prince and princess fell in behind her. Delnikoff's heart beat with pride as he felt the warm and living hand of the girl upon his arm. The warm perfume that came from her fan intoxicated him. He, the suave, the blasé, the gay one from St. Petersburg, was like a boy at his first party. In the dance that followed, as he felt his arm around her waist, a thrill of pleasure drove the blood quicker through his heart. After the dance he led her to the conservatory.

"You have changed," he said as his eyes devoured her. "As you grow more beautiful you grow more gracious. A year ago you spurned me—almost."

"Almost" she answered, with a coquettish laugh that sent the blood to his head. "Are you so weak that almost drives you from a woman's side?"

"But your father," he stammered.

"He said you were to love with an American. He sent you here, so he told me to keep you from that fellow."

Alma put her hand before her face and laughed—a singularly rollicking laugh.

"Sent me away to keep me from a man I have seen but a few times, a man engaged in selling American windmills and pumps? Oh, prince, do you think that this, with all its strength, could keep me from the man I loved if I knew where he was to be found?"

He bent over her. His hot breath on her cheek brought a blush to her face. She looked up into his face with a fascinating smile.

"Is it possible, tell me—you know how I have loved you—is it possible that you—have not thought of me?"

A roughish look came into his eyes, and she covered them quickly with her fan. He tore away the fan.

"Tell me" he said.

"Eh! Some one is coming. Let us return to the ballroom. Another time we can talk."

He conducted her back to the ballroom. With reluctance he relinquished her to the governor.

"What a wonderful success!" she said as they swept past the prince, who was devouring her again with his eyes.

"I thank you," said the governor. "It was you who made it the success it is."

"Not I, but the genius of the governor of this," she answered, with a smile that stirred even his old blood.

"What has got into that girl?" asked Colonel Turneff of himself as he watched her. "I am beginning to think my brother was a fool in ordering me to keep her confined. Instead I should have given balls and parties for her."

My course is plain now that the prince has her won. All I need do is to take the credit and win promotion.

Alma danced with her uncle. During the waltz he felt a victim to her charms.

"Am I a doll? Has she turned my head, too?" he asked himself.

He took her back to the prince, who was jealous even of the uncle.

"The next waltz is mine," he said. "But if you are tired I would prefer to sit in the conservatory."

"Would you?" glancing at him archly. "I wonder if I could guess why?"

"Could you guess why? If my manner does not tell you why, shall I permit my tongue to tell? Because I love you. I loved you before, Alma, but never as I do tonight. I thought you hated me. I thought you loved that American."

"Get me some wine, prince."

He fetched the wine himself.

"For the first time from my hand! You never accepted anything from me before."

"Then enjoy the honor," she answered, laughing. "I may exact more before the night is over."

"Anything! I swear it! Tonight you are welcome to my life, to my honor, to my allegiance to the czar. Only love me."

He bent and kissed her. "She drank the wine and patted his arm."

"Prince, you are a gay cavalier. One could scarcely know you in St. Petersburg, where there were so many women more beautiful than I. But here one learns that you are a bold and wicked man. Don't dare kiss me again."

"I will the very next time I get a chance."

She seemed exhausted at times and often turned her eyes with her gloved hand. Her eyes were at times restless by gay, at others thoughtful and intense. These moods passed quickly, as if by superhuman effort. When the prince stepped away for tea she moaned almost aloud:

"God help me to keep it up! God help me to succeed! It is the only way."

When he returned, she greeted him with smiles as she accepted the wine.

"The next is another waltz," she said. "I love waltzing, and you are such a splendid partner."

"Thank you. I love to waltz with you. I love you and everything you do."

"Wait—wait till you know me better."

CHAPTER IX.

A CAPRICIOUS WOMAN.

IT too early to offer congratulations, Colonel Turneff said the governor of this as he turned Prince Delnikoff and Alma's son past.

"I don't know. This night is a revelation to me. All this year I have been obeying the commands of the general, my brother, to keep the girl under some restraint and a careful watch. My order is in love with her maid, and through him I learn everything. She has made no attempt to escape nor to send or receive letters. The general wrote that she was desperately in love with an objectionable man and that he sent her to me till she consented to wed the prince. Now she blossoms out as a veritable coquette or else she is desperately in love with Delnikoff. How do you read her?"

"To me she seems like a bird let loose from a disreputable cage," replied the governor. "Certain it is that she is the most fascinating young woman this ballroom has ever seen. Delnikoff is to be envied."

"But the change is so sudden! How do you account for it?"

"Perhaps there is really no change. Young women of the advanced type in Russia are not what our mothers were. Then women were even, deliberate, and always the same. But now! Paris has come to St. Petersburg. I think your niece has a touch of the Parisian spirit tonight. It is possible that the girl never had any real opposition to Delnikoff. He is rich, handsome and no worse morally than any of our young princes. Almost any young girl would jump at the chance to marry him. I think the girl has been misunderstood."

"Perhaps," said Turneff. "It would be a big feather in my hat if they should become betrothed while Delnikoff is here."

"The general is a mighty power in St. Petersburg. Should you succeed where he failed, he would no doubt reward you by promotion."

"A garrisoned capital would be the least he could give me, with the chevrons of a general."

"True. Now let us conspire in a loving attempt to make these two young people happy. You were young once, Turneff; the same with me. With the young, deliberation chills enthusiasm. Strike while the iron is hot! Bring them out tonight!"

"Tonight? What does your excellency mean?"

"You do not see that the girl is warming toward the prince? As for Delnikoff, he is intoxicated with her beauty. Will not make their betrothal the toast of the supper?"

"If that could be done, my promotion would be assured. Such an event would cap the matter."

"Then do it! Strike while the iron is hot!"

Turneff spent many minutes thinking. If he could bring about the betrothal announcement of the betrothal of his niece and Delnikoff at the governor's supper, the girl would not dare refuse to redeem the pledge. He saw Alma standing alone for a moment and went to her.

"My dear niece," he said in his blandest manner, "you are charming tonight. How have you changed so suddenly?"

"Oh, one cannot be very charming shut up in a stupid prison. It is happiness that gives one the power to charm."

"You have captivated everybody, from the governor down. I thought you hated the prince."

"Did I ever tell you so?"

"No; but your father wrote me to that effect."

"And so you kept me under surveillance?"

"I—not exactly that, Alma, but I perhaps misunderstood you and your father's directions. If I have done anything to make you unhappy during your visit, I trust you will pardon me and believe it was done with an eye single to your welfare."

"You have been very kind. I presume it was the manner of my behavior that made you think I was unhappy; but, to tell the truth, I was anxious."

"Anxious? At something I did?"

"You and my father. I got so weary of the stupid story that I was in love with that American that I continued to act as if I were. There comes the prince. He is not noble in that splendid uniform? And my father not been so cruel—well, there is no use rehearsing that."

"But there is. The governor is intoxicated with you. He has a pet scheme for the supper tonight. He has watched you and Delnikoff. He says you are the handsomest couple in all Russia."

"Well, we are," said Alma, with a toss of her head.

"By heaven, I'll wager you a thousand rubles you are in love with Delnikoff."

"I will not bet on so trivial a matter."

"Trivial! Then here is another. I'll wager you a thousand rubles you dare not let the governor announce your betrothal to the prince at the supper."

"My betrothal? Do you want me to throw myself at a man? He has not asked me to be his wife."

"He has asked your father, and it is your father's dearest wish."

"But I am not a commodity. I am not gay or silly. I am a woman, and woman likes to be so long beside the salable goods in a market."

"Well, think it over. The supper will not be for an hour."

As he turned to leave he was startled to Delnikoff that he wanted to speak privately with him. After a moment Delnikoff gave him a look of the most

"My dear prince," said Turneff, "I am glad to see you so happy. After your promotion to my happiness, this is a great joy to me."

"You are giving me a puzzle. What do you mean?"

"I was under the impression that you were in love with her."

"I believe it. Who could do other?"

"The governor is much interested in your little affair as I am myself. To tell you the truth, my niece is very precious. I am sure she will be a fine wife to you."

"I am sure she will be a fine wife to you."

JAPS MAKING GOOD GAINS.

Aided by Fleet, Mikado's Brave Soldiers Occupy Guin Slean Shan Heights.

BIG MINE IS EXPLODED.

Sortie of the Russian Vladivostok Squadron.

Liao Yang, July 1.—[Special.]—The Japanese are reported within 25 miles of this place.

Mukden, July 1.—[Special.]—The Japanese, aided by their fleet, captured Guin Slean Shan heights, half way between Dalney and Port Arthur. Both sides sustained heavy losses, but no accurate figures can be secured. As the Japanese column advanced a mammoth mine was exploded under it by concealed electrical wires. Many were killed and wounded by this explosion. The Japs are steadily gaining ground in their advance on Port Arthur.

Tokio, July 1.—The Russian Vladivostok squadron accompanied by torpedo boats appeared off Gensan on the east coast of Korea. Torpedo boats entered Gensan harbor at 3:30 in the morning, shelled the settlement and sank a small steamer and a small schooner. The torpedo boats left the harbor at 7:20. A total of 200 shells were fired into the settlement, but no serious damage resulted. Later the Vladivostok squadron, consisting of three cruisers, one torpedo boat destroyer and nine torpedo boats, was reported off Angsan about 15 miles to the east of Gensan, proceeding in a southeasterly direction. Its destination is not known.

Details of the capture of Fenshui pass on June 27 show that the Russians were driven from an exceedingly strong position dominating the Shimucheng rail. In this engagement the Russian losses were again heavier than those of the Japanese. The Japanese outmaneuvered the Russians by working around the enemy's right flank and attacking him in the rear.

The Japanese advanced in three columns. One was assigned to deliver a frontal attack and the others to strike the enemy on the flanks. The column which advanced on the Russian right flank fought a separate action. It encountered three battalions of infantry, six guns and two machine guns on Sunday morning. This engagement lasted until sunset of Sunday. At this hour the Japanese bivouacked and renewed the assault at midnight, when they succeeded in defeating the Russians. On Monday morning, the 27th, the Russians were reinforced with three battalions and 16 guns. They assaulted the Japanese viciously and endeavored to retake the position they had lost. They were repulsed and the Japanese flankers worked their way to the rear of the main Russian position at Fenshui pass. This attack occurred at 3 o'clock in the morning.

10,000 Russians Routed. In the meantime the Japanese column which had been assigned to make the frontal attack met and routed 10,000 infantry and cavalry posted near Wenchangpansu. This happened on Sunday, the 26th. At dawn Monday the Japanese renewed the attack. The fighting this day was opened by the artillery. The Russians poured a deadly artillery fire on the attackers and the Japanese artillery secured a new position and delivered a heavy cross fire on the Russian lines of defense.

While this was proceeding the Japanese infantry and engineers cleared the obstructions from the Russian rear and closed in on the enemy. The Russians broke and fled at 11:20 Monday morning. The Japanese gained and retained possession of the heights. The Russians left 90 dead behind them on the heights. This number of dead does not include those found in the valleys. The Japanese lost 270 men killed or wounded in the flanking and frontal attacks.

The Russian troops who defended Fenshui pass consisted of 11 battalions of infantry, 17 squadrons of cavalry and three batteries of artillery. The enemy had spent three months in fortifying Fenshui pass. The barracks and other buildings captured by the Japanese had not been destroyed, but before retreating the Russians burned their warehouse at Shantassu. The Russians retreated in disorder to Shimucheng.

The Japanese captured 38 prisoners.

Oku Buries 1,854 Russians. A report from General Oku says that after the fighting at Tolsist (Yanfengow) on June 15 he buried 1,854 Russians. The trophies taken by the Japanese at this engagement consisted of 16 guns, 46 wagons and 533 rifles.

St. Petersburg, July 1.—It is rumored here that the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Lieutenant Burukoff, which arrived at Newchwang from Port Arthur Wednesday evening, brought news that Rear Admiral Witthoft went out again on June 21 and gave battle to the Japanese fleet.

As the result of the receipt of news of a fire which took place at the torpedo works at Cronstadt last night, this city is filled with the wild rumors, including one to the effect that the Peterhof palace had been blown up.

The damage at Cronstadt was confined to the torpedo mechanism shops, which were almost wholly destroyed, together with 20 Whitehead torpedoes. Five of the torpedoes had war heads attached and they exploded, which added to the fire and the excitement. A considerable quantity of oil stored in the works was also burned. An alarm was given in time to prevent loss of life and more serious loss of property.

London, July 1.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says that in the engagement off Port Arthur, June 23, the Russian battleship Sevastopol was slightly damaged.

The correspondent says that the coal supply in Port Arthur is sufficient to last for eight months. The battleships Retvizan and Czarevitch, he says, have been completely repaired and their guns, which had been posted in the forts, have been replaced.

The Japanese, the correspondent adds, occupied Wolf mountain after desperate fighting, in which a Russian regiment was almost annihilated.
